

Put these dates from the English Civil War in order, then create a cartoon strip!

1640

Short Parliament – King Charles called Parliament together for a few weeks to ask for money, when they said no, he closed Parliament

1642

English Civil War started when King Charles left London - he was scared of being killed because so many people were unhappy, he gathered supporters and an army in Oxford

1629

King Charles closed Parliament and started to rule on his own – this is called the Personal Rule

1646

End of the first part of the English Civil War – Parliament were winning and had arrested King Charles

1651

After 2 years of disagreement and fighting about who would rule now King Charles was dead, Oliver Cromwell became Lord Protector of the Commonwealth of England, Scotland, Wales and Ireland – he ran the country with Parliament

1640

Long Parliament started – Parliament was together for the whole time trying to run the country throughout the Civil War until 1660

1649

King Charles was put on trial – the jury found him guilty of treason against the country and executed him
